DAY-1 REPORT

Name of Event: Camp Inauguration & Sustainable Farming Awareness for Farmers

Date of Event: 21-11-2025

Place of Event: Vinjanampadu

On 21-11-2025 the National Service Scheme (NSS) Special Camp at Vinjanampadu commenced with a formal Inauguration ceremony. Key dignitaries Panchayat Sarpanch, Panchayat Secretary College Principal, Director other Village People were invited and welcomed. During the ceremony, Panchayat Secretary explained the significance of community service, sustainable village development and collective responsibility was highlighted, Principal and director given wonderful words for inspiring volunteers and villagers alike to participate actively. After that college NSS program officer has given some instructions, separated teams and allotted duties for the smooth conduction of the daily events.

Following the inauguration, a Sustainable Farming Awareness was organized for the farmer community of the village door to door. The objective was to introduce modern and eco-friendly agricultural practices such as proper soil health management, judicious use of fertilizers, balanced pesticide application, water conservation, and crop diversification. Many farmers, accustomed to traditional methods, participated. Volunteers explained the benefits of soil testing, organic fertilization, reduced chemical dependency, water-efficient irrigation and long-term sustainability of yield and soil fertility.

During interaction, farmers were encouraged to share their existing practices and challenges: issues like lack of knowledge of modern methods, uncertain costs, and hesitation to change age-old practices were discussed. The interaction is happened with a question-answer way, where volunteers addressed villagers' doubts and suggested ways forward, including possible follow-up support or extension services for interested farmers. Volunteers also planned to collate a list of interested farmers for future guidance.

Challenges identified:

- Limited awareness among certain farmers of modern agriculture techniques.
- Economic constraints in shifting to new methods (fertilizer/organic inputs, soil testing, etc.).
- Traditional mindset and reluctance to adopt changes.

Recommendations:

- Organize periodic training / follow-up workshops or connect farmers with agricultural extension services.
- Promote soil testing drives and educate on balanced fertilization.
- Encourage demonstration plots / peer-learning among progressive farmers.

DAY-2 REPORT

Name of Event: Swachh Bharat & Environmental Awareness "Clean Village, Green Village"

Date of Event: 22-11-2025

Place of Event: Vinjanampadu

On the second day of camp 22-11-2025, the NSS volunteers launched a Village-wide cleanliness drive. Volunteers and villagers together cleaned streets, public gathering places, common water sources, temple surroundings and other communal areas. The emphasis was on eliminating waste, preventing open dumping, and maintaining hygiene in the village environment.

A Door-to-door awareness campaign was carried out by the volunteers met households to educate them about the importance of clean surroundings, waste segregation, and proper disposal of garbage, avoiding plastic use, and reducing usage of single-use plastics. They also explained risks associated with plastic pollution and encouraged adoption of alternatives (cloth bags, biodegradable materials, reuse, etc.).

In addition, an Environmental awareness session for villagers was held covering topics such as tree plantation, water conservation, preserving local greenery, preventing contamination of water bodies, and encouraging community participation in environmental protection. Volunteers proposed to identify plots for tree plantation or small green-areas and motivated villagers to contribute saplings or plant trees around homes / public spaces.

Observations / Outcomes:

- Several households acknowledged lack of awareness about waste disposal many villagers pledged to adopt better waste management and reduce plastic.
- Volunteers and villagers agreed to maintain cleanliness and manage waste collectively.
- Interest was shown in tree-plantation.

Challenges:

- Limited infrastructure for waste disposal / segregation.
- Habitual use of plastic among some households.
- Need for sustained motivation and community participation.

Recommendations:

- Establish a village-level waste management committee
- Conduct periodic cleanliness drives and Plastic usage (weekly / monthly).
- Every 6 months Launch tree-plantation program; involve school children, youth and elders.

DAY-3 REPORT

Name of Event: Health & Hygiene Awareness "Healthy Village"

Date of Event: 23-11-2025

Place of Event: Vinjanampadu

On the third day of camp 23-11-2025, a comprehensive Health and hygiene awareness camp was held in the village. With association Guntur Ramesh Hospitals, we are conducted health check-up test like BP, SUGAR, ECG, and Eye Check-up for the village people. NSS volunteers engaged with villagers of all age groups children, adults, and senior citizens educating them on importance of personal hygiene, sanitation, safe drinking water, waste disposal, and preventive health practices.

Volunteers explained safe water handling, hand-washing, proper toilet and sanitation habits and importance of cleanliness at home and surroundings. They also highlighted preventive measures for common illnesses, especially those due to poor sanitation and shared advice on nutrition, balanced diet, and general hygiene.

Women and mothers were addressed specially discussions included maternal child hygiene, safe food preparation, child health and maintaining sanitary conditions in households. Volunteers encouraged regular cleaning of water storage containers, waste disposal, and hygienic cooking practices.

Villagers' existing health issues, sanitation challenges or lack of facilities were noted volunteers collected data via informal interaction to assess gaps in hygiene and sanitation infrastructure. This assessment will help plan follow-up initiatives like clean-up drives, health check-ups, or appeals to local authorities for better sanitation.

Observations:

- Many villagers lacked awareness of link between sanitation/hygiene and diseases after the session, awareness improved.
- Women participants were receptive and showed interest in implementing practices at home.
- Need for clean water supply, waste disposal facilities, and periodic health check-ups was emphasized.

Recommendations:

- Plan periodic health & hygiene awareness sessions.
- Encourage households to adopt safe sanitation and clean-water practices.
- Liaise with local authorities for improvement of water supply, sanitation, toilet facilities.
- Organize regular health check-up / medical camps in future.

DAY-4 REPORT

Name of Event: Cyber Safety & Digital Awareness "Cyber Suraksha Abhiyan"

Date of Event: 24-11-2025

Place of Event: Vinjanampadu

On the fourth day of camp 24-11-2025, NSS volunteers conducted a Digital awareness campaign aimed at village residents especially school students who use smartphones or are interested in learning about digital services. The session covered Cyber safety, risks of online scams, safe digital payments, and basic digital literacy.

During the interaction, volunteers explained how online scams and frauds operate using simple language and real-life examples: cautioning against sharing personal credentials, bank details, or falling for fake calls/emails claiming prizes or making threats. They introduced the concept of phishing, spoofing and social engineering alerting villagers about possible frauds and how to avoid them. Also, volunteers demonstrated how to use digital payment services (e.g. UPI) and other online banking / digital services step-by-step from installing apps setting up securely, to making safe transactions. The advantages of digital payments convenience, speed, reduced need to travel to banks, secure transactions were emphasized.

For villagers unfamiliar with smartphones or internet, volunteers offered Basic digital literacy training how to operate a smartphone, use internet, communicate with relatives, use online services government services and the benefits of digital connectivity (education, information, and banking).

Outcomes:

- Several villagers appreciated learning about digital payments and showed interest in adopting them.
- School students seemed enthusiastic about improving their digital literacy.
- Concern about safety and security expressed villagers pledged to be cautious online.

Recommendations:

- Organize periodic digital-literacy drives for villagers, especially elders and women.
- Provide guidance/support for first-time smartphone or UPI users.
- Spread awareness about cyber threats and safe internet practices continuously.

DAY-5 REPORT

Name of Event: Skill for Future Empowering School Students

Date of Event: 25-11-2025

Place of Event: Vinjanampadu (Local school)

On the fifth day of camp 25-11-2025, NSS volunteers organized a Skill development programme for school students from the of village focusing on life skills, soft skills, digital literacy and future career guidance. The aim was to bridge the gap between academic learning and real-world skills.

The workshop included sessions on communication skills, teamwork, leadership, problem solving, time management, and basic computer/digital skills. Volunteers collaborated with local school teacher to conduct interactive sessions, group activities, motivational talks, and discussions to encourage students to think about future education and career paths. Students were motivated to develop self-confidence, discipline, and sense of responsibility. Volunteers also highlighted importance of education, digital literacy, and soft skills for future opportunities whether in higher education, jobs, or entrepreneurship.

At the end of the session, many students expressed interest in learning more skills (computer, languages, vocational), and showed enthusiasm for community participation alongside education. Volunteers planned to maintain contact with interested students to guide them further, possibly through mentorship or periodic skill-training sessions.

Observations:

- Students responded positively, participated actively in discussions and activities.
- Many expressed lack of access to digital resources / computers at home; interest shown in basic computer classes or digital access.
- Soft-skill sessions raised their awareness about importance of communication, confidence, teamwork.

Recommendations:

- Initiate regular evening/weekend classes for interested students (computer, basic digital literacy, soft-skills).
- Encourage volunteers to mentor students academically and for career planning.
- Facilitate access to digital resources if possible.

DAY-6 REPORT

Name of Event: Government Schemes & Women Empowerment "Saksham Mahila"

Date of Event: 26-11-2025

Place of Event: Vinjanampadu

On the sixth day of the camp 26-11-2025, the NSS team organized an Awareness session for women and community members about various government welfare schemes, women's rights and empowerment opportunities. The intent was to inform villagers especially women about benefits, eligibility, and how to access these schemes.

Volunteers explained different central/state government schemes related to women's welfare, health, education, social security, and economic upliftment depending on schemes relevant to Andhra Pradesh. They discussed how women can avail benefits, the application process, documentation, and support available.

An interactive group discussion followed women from different households shared their challenges, needs, and aspirations. The session provided a platform for women to voice their issues, ask questions, and understand how government schemes can help. Volunteers created a list of interested women who may require help in applying obtaining benefits.

Additionally, empowerment through awareness about education for girls/women, right to equality, decision-making in family/community, financial independence or skill-training opportunities was emphasized. The aim was to boost confidence and encourage participation of women in community development and decision-making.

Observations:

- Many women were unaware of certain government schemes or benefits this session proved very informative.
- Women expressed interest in skill-development, financial independence and education for daughters.
- There was readiness among village women to form self-help groups or community groups to support each other.

Recommendations:

- Maintain roster of interested women and assist them in applying for schemes.
- Plan follow-up skill-training, vocational training, or awareness drives.
- Encourage formation of self-help groups / women's committees for continuous support and empowerment.

DAY-7 REPORT

Name of Event: Civic Awareness "Vote for Change" & Anganwadi Visit

Date of Event: 27-11-2025

Place of Event: Vinjanampadu

On 27-11-2025, the final day of the NSS Special Camp, volunteers conducted a Civic awareness campaign focusing on encouraging villagers to exercise their democratic rights responsibly, emphasizing the importance of voting, informed decision-making, and community participation in governance.

Volunteers distributed informational brochures held meetings explaining the process of voter registration, eligibility, significance of voting, how participation can influence community development and address local needs. Emphasis was placed on the responsibility of citizens to vote wisely and contribute to positive change.

Additionally, volunteers visited the local Anganwadi centre (or preschool / childcare facility) to assess conditions, hygiene, and facilities. They interacted with Anganwadi workers, mothers, and children; evaluated cleanliness, nutrition, basic needs and awareness among mothers. Volunteers suggested improvements and offered support or guidance such as hygiene awareness, health and nutrition education, and community involvement.

In the evening, a Valedictory meeting / camp conclusion ceremony was organized. State NSS Officer Dr M.Sudhaker garu and principle, hods participated, Feedback from villagers, volunteers and local leaders were solicited. Volunteers and villagers expressed their gratitude certificates were distributed by State NSS Officer to the volunteers in recognition of their service. The ceremony reaffirmed commitment to future follow-up and maintaining the positive changes initiated during the camp.

Observations / Outcomes:

- Several eligible people showed interest in registering as voters and checking the status.
- Mothers and Anganwadi workers welcomed suggestions about hygiene / nutrition / child care; some showed commitment to implement changes.
- The valedictory ceremony strengthened bond between NSS volunteers and villagers; many villagers expressed hope for continued support.

Recommendations:

- Facilitate voter registration drives, especially for first-time voters
- Support Anganwadi centre possibly with hygiene kits, nutrition awareness, periodic monitoring.
- Plan follow-up community meets to monitor progress and help sustain changes.
- Maintain communication between volunteers and village community for follow-up initiatives.

Sub: Seeking Permission to Conduct NSS Special Camp

Dear Madam

I would like to bring it to your notice that we have proposed conduct National Service Scheme (NSS) Special Camp in the Village Vinjanampadu. The camp is scheduled to be organized from 21-11-2025 to 27-11-2025. As you may be aware, NSS plays a pivotal role in fostering community development, social awareness, and civic engagement among our youth. With this objective in mind, our team of dedicated volunteers has meticulously planned a special camp aimed at addressing various social issues prevalent in our village.

So consider this social cause and grant us permission to hold the camp
